CITY MANAGER PLAN AGAIN AGITATED

Petition to be Presented to Court In July

ELECTION OCTOBER 1

To Elect Five Councilmen at Large and Mayor in June 1922 and They to Take Office Sept. 1 of That Year

A change in the form of our City Government is again becoming a matter of deep interest in our community as on the 23rd of September next, two years will have expired since the last election held on that question. It is no doubt of interest to the community to know when another election can be held and the proposed date for the holding of the same and as well to be again reminded of the provisions of the Constitution and laws of our state on that subject. Under Section 117 of the Constitution of 1901, as amended at the November election 1912, it is provided that the General Assembly of Virginia may by general or special law provide for such form or forms of municipal government as the General Assembly may deem best, but that no such form of government authorized by said election of the constitution, shall become operative until the same shall be adopted by a majority vote of the qualified electors at an election to be prescribed therefor by law.

Section 2929 of the Code of Virginia 1919, provides that, any city having a population of less than fifty thousand or any town therein, organized under general or with special charter, may change its form of government by complying with the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly.

The Act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved March 14, 1918 Section 2. provides for the submission of the question of change of form of government to the electors, upon the petition of electors equal in number to at least ten per centum of those qualified to vote at the last preceding general election at which a mayor or council was elected, and specifying the particular form of government permitted under the Act which they wish to adopt including the they wish to adopt including the number of councilmen, and whether they are to be elected at large or by wards, and whether they are to receive compensation for their services This petition must be presented to the judge of the Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria in term or vacation, requesting that an election be held for that purpose. The petition must be presented not over ninety days and not less than thirty days before the date fixed for any such election and must set forth specifically the plan or form of city government upon which the electors are to vote. This petition can be signed only by those who were qualified voters at the election for mayor and

BERGDOLL SOON TO WED, HE SAYS

Philadelphia, June 10.— Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, the world's most notorious draft dodger, soon is to marry. Bergdoll made his announcement today in Germany, whether he fled fro mthis city. Moreover, the wealthy Philadelphia slacker assertfrankly he is marrying so that his wife can bring suit in this country for restoration of his property, valued at $750,000, seized a fortnight ago by Col. Thomas W. Miller, Alien Property Custodian. Bergdoll, who is living in Ebenbach, Baden, sent the following telegram voluntarily to the Berlin bureau of International News Service.

"Thousands of Americans were in Germany trading with the enemy long before I arrived in this country. Why did not the United States seize their property? I did not trade with the enemy. All the money I have spent in Germany was for absolute necessities of life. I will be married shortly and my wife will bring suit in the United States for restoration of my property in that country. The action of the United States Government in seizing my property wis illegal."

Who the fraulein is that Grover will lead to the altar is not divulged by him. His matrimonial plans are a surprise to his friends here.

Former Magistrate James E. Romig said he did not know Grover had the "marrying bug."

Grover, since he skipped from his home in this city, a year ago, has been chiefly at Eberbach. With him is Eugene Stecher, a chauffeur and companion.

The slacker's mother, Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, testified before the special House committee, which investigated his escape, that her son was with relatives in Sberbach. She said she had a niece in the Baden town, describing her as a "nice girl."

Delvers into Bergdoll's confessed romance wonder if his bride may be Franklin Lena Link, of Ebebach. She was in the motor car with the slacker when two "non-coms" of the American Army of Occupation in Germany tried to capture Grover. She was hit in the arm by a bullet from a pistol one of the "non-coms" aimed at Bergdoll.

DEFICIT OF $250 COMMUTERS REPORT

Trolley Patrons Executive Commitee Appeals to Public

WANT MEN MEMBERS

Review Work Accomplished Given—Increased Rates Suspended Till July 13.

The sum of $250 is needed by the Mount Vernon Division Commuters' Association to help pay the expenses incident to teh protest made on behalf of the commuters by this association to prevent an increase in rates over the Washington-Virginia Railway. This case is now pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission and the aid of all commuters is asked for in this work. It is announced that the sum of $1 will insure membership in the association for a period of one year.

Those desiring to join the association or help pay the expenses incident to the fight just completed on which a decision will be given between now and July 13 are asked to send their contributions to the following stores: R. E. Knight and the Alexandria Cash Grocery, King and Washington streets.

The executive committee of this association at a recent meeting held went over the financial situation.

At the various hearings held in Washington opposing the increase, a majority of the members of the executive committee of the asociation were in attendance at all of the hearings. They also spent considerable time and labor in obtaining data for the attorneys representing teh contestants and these activities covered a period of more than three months and the case was regarded as one of the hardest fought cases ever presented before the commission.

Attention is directed by the members of the executive committee that the case is still pending before the commission, and that were it not for the fact that a contest was made the commuters now would be paying $5.58 for their monthly commutation books instead of $4.46 and that the twenty-five trip book known as the family book would be withdrawn and that passengers would be paying 24 cents for a single fare instead of 19 cents they are now paying. Members of the committee feel confident that the commuters are satisfied that the protest was worth while, as already they have saved considerable, while the suspension of the rates has been operative.

The members of the executive committee again urge all who can to contribute to the cause and help make up the deficit.

The executive committee desires to thank the chamben of commerce, Capt. George H. Evans, business manager of the chamber of commerce; Mayor J. M. Duncan, Harry H. R. Burke, president of the common council; Claude W. Fletcher, F. A. Goodnow and all others who assisted in the work.

The executive committee is composed of D. R. Stansbury, F. J. Paff, S. B. Fowler, T. Clifton Howard, Phineas J. Dempsey, C. Ashby Bladen, Edwin M. Birrell, Robert Zachary, W. M. King, Harrie White and Louis P. Woodward.

SOUNDS DEATH KNELL OF STRIKES

A. F. L. Leader Says They Must Cease In Building Trades

CARPENTERS SILENT

President Dunlin of Building Trades Department Predicts a Boom Which Will Provide Work For All.

Denver, June 10.—John Donlin, president of the Building Trades' Department of the American Federation of Labor, took the strike bull by the horns yesterday when in his annual report to the department convention he unequivocally declared that strikes in the building trades must cease, and that the decisions of the board of jurisdictional awards set up by the several interests in the industry to prevent unnecessary strikes must be respected and obeyed

Nor did he stop there. In almost so many words he proclaimed the arrival of the time when unions that persist in unnecessary strikes must be treated as the common enemy of those organizations which live in harmony with the employers, adding, by way of emphasis, that the time also has arrived when the presence of nonunion men on a job must not be regarded as a cause of or excuse for a strike.

This doctrine, which a few years ago would have been hailed as rank heresy in any labor meting was listened to attentively by the 900 delegates. When he concluded he was loudly applauded, only the carpenters' delgates, headed by General President William L. Hutcheson, sitting silent. The carpenters refrained because Donlin's address in its salient features was an indictment of the carpenters for their refusal to abide by decisions of the jurisdictional award board and demand for a show down to determine whether the carpenters' organization shall be a law unto itself or be compelled to play the game under rules which they helped to lay down for all.

The issue raised has a direct bearing on the building situation in many cities. If the Board for Jurisdictional Awards lives, and the old excuses for calling strikes on buildings in course of construction are removed, craft strikes will become rare if not impossible. If the board dies, and die it will if any craft is permitted to defy it, the way will be open for Brindell, who even now talks in Sing Sing of the time when he will come back, and others of his type who may happen to be in power to levy tribute on all buildings.

Donlin's report was submitted without debate to a committee. This committee may report tomorrow, when a bitter fight is expected on the floor. Whatever the result there, it may be expected to find its way eventually to the convention of the Federation which opens next week and overshadow all other matters of dispute.

Before touching on the matter of strikes, Mr. Donlin reviewed conditions in the building trade generally, predicting a boom that will provide work for all and warning employers against pressing their advantage now lest the men be tempted to do likewise when the boom comes. He also pleaded for efficiency declaring that "in return for American standards of production," and calling for co-operation of all elements in the industry.

The Threshold and Beyond.

The young boys and girls who, having successfully finished the prescribed courses of instruction, are next week to be graduated from the Alexandria High School, stand not only upon the threshold of life but at the beginning of a new era in human affairs.

During the past seven years while these young people have been peacefully pursuing their studies ten million men have been butchered to death upon the battlefields of Europe and thirty millions more have perished through starvation, disease and misery. We have had a war, a world war, the greatest conflagration in all history. New and terrible engines of destruction were fashioned and turned loose on the land, in the heavens above, the sea beneath and the waters under the sea. Any language stands a beggar before an attempt to portray the horrors of the wholesale slaughter we call the World War.

The world, still bandaged and bleeding, is entering upon a new period of history, a great era of reconstruction and rebuilding, of healing and restoring. Never was the call for service in the world, in Alexandria, as well as in far off China, more insistent, more compelling, than it is today. Our schools, churches, homes, our social and political life need new workers, new blood, new ideas, new inspiration.

All of which must come from just such young men and women as are to be the graduates of the city's high school,—young men and women with trained and disciplined minds, with strong, capable bodies, with lofty and high-minded ideals. Theirs is a great opportunity and a grave responsibility.

Alexandria, with pride and affection, looks to them to help carry on the city's life in all its varied phases, hopes that as many of them as possible will be able to continue their studies higher still, and bids them godspeed as they cross the threshold to take up the duties and privileges of citizenship.

A DAILY THOUGHT

Take an optimism inventory. It will do you good, especially if you are inclined to hang a blue border on your mental pictures.

Persistent optimism pays big dividens in success and health. Every specialist from the medical profession up through all the grades of metaphysicians and back again will tell you that cheerful thinking, confidence and serenity powerfully affect your physical condition.

The persistent optimist is apt to be healthy. He's apt to be a particularly good worker. He's apt to progress more rapidly than his desponding fellow workers.

Most of the things we fear never happen and even if they do, a long period of agonized anticipation lowers our physical and mental morale just that much more, makes us less able to meet and handle the adverse situation when it does finally confront us.

If you knew three years in advance that you were going to meet a lion when you were alone and unarmed, on a certain day, it's doubtful whether you would live to experience that encounter, for at the time approached, your imagination would cause you to go through the ordeal daily.

But the real optimist is philosopher enough to know that even the most trying ordeals frequently result in lasting benefits. One of the greatest of the world's writers, Nathaniel Hawthorne, when a young boy, met with an accident that temporarily crippled him. A little later he was stricken with a long illness. It was during these periods of enforced physical inactivity that he developed a fondness for book reading and when he came to write the benefits of his youthful reading were reflected in his literary style.

Nothing is truer than that every cloud has a silver lining. Always look for it.

POLICE WINK AS BIG SALOON AND GAMBLING DENS RUNS WIDE OPEN

The Bronx section of New York is known for the abiding place of a staid and law obeying citizenry. It was a great shock, therefore, when sordid rumors began circulating recently, that within the Bronx's confines a big saloon was running wide open, with "white mule" being served abundantly and openly over the bar; with big poker games for large stakes a continuous performance, and shootings and killings a mere incident of the day's routine.

As is usual with rumors, the word passed from mouth to mouth, with whispers of daily sordid happenings of crooked card games, of girls gone bad, and men being shot down without a moment's notice. Could it be harboring a viper? The Bronx wondered.

Of course the police got wind of it, and a spectacular clean up was planned. The appointed night came, and the police, in solid phalanx, descended upon the reported resort where vice had its nightly rendezvous.

What was their surprise, then to find that the gamblers and the gunmen were just an aggregation of respectable motion picture actors who played penny ante in real life and were worrying whether the landlord would raise the rent again. They were appearing in a gambling scene in the Selznick picture, "The Valley of Doubt," directed by Burton George.

"Some perfectly good newspaper headlines gone to waste," lamented one of the "bulls."

"The Valley of Doubt," which was written by the well known playwright, Willard Mack, will be shown at the Idle Hour Theatre Saturday, and local fans who have heard so much of the thrilling incidents during frontier life in the West will have an opportunity of witnessing an exact repica of that exciting period.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS MISSING

An English sailor settled in Australia and after his wife died, leaving a boy and girl of ten and twelve years of age, he concluded to leave them and come to America.

Sometime afterward he met and married a woman who imposed the condition that he never communicate with his children or his first wife's people. He kept that promise for thirty-five years but after her death he began to long for his boy and girl and started inquiries to find them.

After Milk Dealers

Two Dairymen Cited Because Milk Not Up To Standard

Two dairymen were cited into the police court today because it was alleged by Dr. Louis E. Foulks, city health officer, that the milk they were serving their customers was not up to the standard. The law provides that the milk shall contain at least three and one quarter per cent butter fat. If it does not contain this amount of butter fat it should be marked, "Not Standard."

Both dairymen were given a week in which to arrange to have the milk come up to the requirements, and each day they report to the health department and have a sample of their milk tested it was announced.

The Man In Charge Speaks

I AM HERE TO SELL IT

My business here is to sell $20,000 worth of fine merchandise for the firm of

R. E. Knight & Son

They have told you in their large four page Ad straight from the shoulder why I am here—Now I have taken off my coat, rolled up my sleeves and gone to it right, smashing down all price barriers in this big store and let me say right here that my prices are making grateful, charming enthusiastic crowds swarm our floors.

I am known in many states as the gleeful, sardonic price smasher. I have been given free reign here and I was told that if this was not a bonifide stock reducing sale, they would not stand for such drastic measures as I have taken.

Now then—I promise you the greatest bargains that can be had on the markets today. Believe every word I have told you in our immense advertisements because prices in this store have been moved down like a vicious contagion and this shall be Alexandria's Greatest Sale. My word is my bond to you, so you can bank on anything I say.

Get here as early as you can. It has been great all week, Saturday will be the big day.

ADMITS HIRING MEN WHO KILLED KABER

Hudson, N. Y., June 10.—Mrs. Eva Kaber, charged with frist degree murder in connection with the slaying of her husband in Lakewood, Ohio, nearly two years ago, today confessed getting a midwife she had consulted to hire two men to beat up her husband in order to change his harsh attitude toward her. She denied that she had intended that he be killed.

Chief of Police Christensen of Lakewood made this statement today to a representative of the Associated Press on the train that was carrying him, Mrs. Kaber and her daughter, Miss Marian McArdle, back to Cleveland.

lwayod ow mod omdo mdomod ohro

Chief Christensen, however, denied a report that the two had been ordered to pose as ghosts. He also stated that Mrs. Kaber had not implicated her daughter.

The woman's departure followed a grilling by police officials that began last night and lasted until early this morning. Stenographers were called, and it was understood that both the women made statements.

It was nearly 4 o'clock before the women were taken from police head quarters. A patrol wagon, in which was placed a blanket and a pillow for Mrs. Kaber, took them to the 30th street station, where they were locked up. Soon afterward an ambulance drew up at the station and a physician entered. Police officials, as well as the physician, refused to say who had been attended.

"CORN KING" CLEARS $500,000 IN WHEAT PIT IN WEEK

Chicago, June 10.—Business may be dull in some lines, but George A. Roberts, the "corn king" of Omaha, nationally known for his spectacular grain deals, is not complaining of hard times.

It is said that Roberts "cleaned" $500,000 in May wheat last week. This is the estimate made by Lee C. Moser, director of information of the United States Grain Growers, Inc. Moser also asserted that Roberts had made more than $5,000,000 in grain deals during the war.

"THE INDUSTRIAL HOME"

Like oases in the arid deserts, the Salvation Army Slum Settlements are planted in the hearts of the congested foreign population of the big cities.

In the eleven of these modern, fireproof, business-like structures more than 48,000 children were cared for last year in the United States. Crowded to the limit day and night, the demands upon them are always far beyond their resources.

The workers from these settlements visit thousands of poor families yearly, and become acquainted with their needs and their troubles. They know the futility of preaching religion to the starving and shivering, and they provide the bowl of soup and loaf of bread, the warm garment and the bit of medicine and nursing attention that is needed as the opening for their religious work.

Dressing like the poorest of their neighbors in gingham dress and apron, bare headed with a little shawl about their shoulders, these women who have dedicated their lives to the Master's service go forth with scrub pail and brush and scrub floors, wash dishes, launder clothes, and preach, pray and help the weak, sick and sinful. The settlements have been called Light houses on a Rocky Coast.

The most absorbing and truly altruistic part of their work is that of the nurseries. There the babies and wee toddlers of the community, under six years of age, are brought by the working mothers on their way to the shop or factory. The little ones are tended, fed, bathed, amused, put to bed in snowy cribs for their naps—and given loving care—for five cents a day, if the mother can pay it. If she cannot, Baby gets the care anyway. One is never refused while there is room for it.

The nickel does not pay for the bread, butter, milk and soup served them at noon and at four o'clock, but the payment of it does help to restore self-respect to the mother.

Toys are provided, and the first lessons in cleanliness, decency, unselfishness and Americanism are inculcated in these little foreigners who will some day bear fruit in splendid citizenship.

The slum workers also coax the bad boys and girls of the neighborhood into the Halls for Sunday School to keep them from the demoralizing influence of the streets.

They likewise conduct Mothers meetings where with a cup of tea and cake, the hard worked women in the bright cheer of the uplifting service and attractive surroundings get inspiration and encouragement to try to better their condition.

The Industrial Home turns waste into wealth; both waste material and waste men. Its work, therefore, is absolutely of economic and social value. The man without work and without home, applying for help, is given nothing gratuitously unless from hunger or illness he is manifestly unable to work. If he is able to work there is a variety of labor ready for him through which he may find a home, friends, clothing, food, sympathy, love and a modest remuneration. He may be placed upon a wagon and set to collecting discarded material from the homes of the city. If he be a tailor, cabinetmaker, painter, or a shoemaker, there is employment in the repairing of used clothing, furniture, stoves, shoes and so on.

A list of articles received is most amazing and instructive: Paper, rags, twine, clothing, shoes, metals, bottles, kitchen utensils, bedroom, kitchen, parlor and office furniture, crockery, glassware, clocks, carpets, books, magazines, pictures, cutlery, stoves, pianos, umbrellas, pillows, antiques, hats, ribbons, artificial flowers, lamps, sewing-machines, phonographs, jewelry, among usual and common things: but we have also received such uncommon and special articles as invalid's chairs, crutches, artificial teeth, limbs, eyes and hair, which may also be turned into cash.

Your old nwspapers, magazines, clothes, furniture, etc., have provided in a year 3,163,878 meals; 1,063,608 beds and cash paid to the otherwise unemployed in exchange for the labor of collecting, sorting, repairing and distributing this material.

If the man possesses no especial skill there is, beside the collecting of the used material, the sorting and baling of paper and rags, the care of the horses and the wagons, and the janitorial labors open to him.

In the big cities the Salvation Army places all of the repaired clothing in its storerooms and daily conducts auctions, while regular sales go on at all times. Here whole families are outfitted with hats, coats, shoes, as well as furniture, at a trifling cost.

It is the boast of the Salvation Army officers that a wedding can be conducted and housekeeping necessities furnished for ten dollars ($10.00) by patronizing the Salvation Army sales rooms.

Leopard Cannot Change Spots

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynimite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel billious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

SPORTS

The Alexandria Torpedo Station baseball team will play the Red Sox A. C., of Washington Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Red Sox as known by the Alexandria fans was defeated by the D's The first game of the season and then the D's played the Mayflower, and was defeated and then the Red Sox A. C. defeated the Mayflower by a score of large majority, and this coming Saturday the A. T. S. will tackle the Red Sox A. C., and hope to put up a good game of ball. The game will be played on North Alfred street diamond. Everybody is welcome.

The Pioneer track and field meet, held at the high school field yesterday afternoon, went very largely to John Sherman Fowler and St. Paul's Troops No. 1. Four troops were contenders from honors in the first meet held by the troops of the city. There was a slight disparity in the ages of the boys, which gave some of the older ones an advantage, but the youngsters fought just as bravely as if they had an equal chance.

The 50 yard dash went to Fowler of St. Pauls No. 1. The prize was a pocket knife given by Worth Hulfish and Son. Spencer of Daniel Boone No. 2, was second and Simpson, of Virginia No. 3, third. The standing broad jump went to MacMenamin, of Eagle No. 5, at 7 feet 1 1-2 inches. The prize was a box of candy presented by Preston O. Cockey. Cochran, St. Paul's No. 1, was second and Morris of the same troop third.

Fowler was first in the 75 yard dash and the prize was a tie from Downham and Ridgley's. Spencer was second and Scrugs, of Daniel Boone No. 2, third. Morris, of St. Pauls No. 1, took the running broad jump at 12 feet. The prize was a flash light holder for bicycle given by J. Kent White. Fowler was second and MacMenamin third.

The running high jump went to Fowler. The winning jump was rewarded with a flash light from J. Kent White. MacMenamin and Simpson tied for second place and on the toss of a coin the latter won. Fowler won the baseball throw and secured the ball the throw was made with, the gift of R. E. Knight and Sons.

The tug-o-war went to St. Paul's Troop with Morris, Bayliss, Scott, Robey, Cochran and Wilbur on the rope. The Eagles took second place and Daniel Boone third. The relay race was won by St. Paul's Troop With Bayliss leading, Morris running second, Cochran third and Fowler finishing. Daniel Boone Troop ran second and the Eagles third.

About thirty boys completed in the meet and the leaders were very much gratified at the results. Magnus Bales acted as starter and high school athletes assisted in officiating. Preton O. Cockey was the referee. The event will be made an annual affair.

Major King, physical director of the Arlington county schools, was an interested spectator att he meet. He is staging the first county meet this afternoon at Arlington which will include all of the schools of the county in many different competitions. He will use the jumping standards and tug-o-war rope of the local Y. M. C. A., and Secretary Wallace wil start the races for the meet.

councilmen at the June election 1920, as the law requires that at least 10 per cent of the number of qualified voters at that date must petition for the election. It is proposed to present this petition to the Judge of the Circuit Court at the July term of said court, and the 4th day of October has been suggested as the date for the holding of such election. In the election to be held on the question of change in the form of city government all persons male and female who were qualified to vote on or before 4th day of April 1921, will be entitled to vote. The number of councilmen proposed is five, to be elected for the city at large.

It is also provided by the Act of the General Assembly of 1918, that should the "City Manager Plan" be adopted. Then the first election to be held thereunder shall be at the next regular June election for mayor, and members of the council, or of members of the council, which ever shall first occur thereafter; the officers so chosen shall enter upon their duties on the first day of September following, and shall serve for a term of four years and until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified, and that the terms of all the members of the old council in such city whether they be hold-over members or not and as well as of the mayor, (if his term has not then expired) shal cease and be determined on the first day of September following such election, and the term of office of all officers and employees theretofore appointed or elected by teh old council shall inl ike manner cease and determine on the first day of September following:

It will be seen from this provision of the statutes, that if at the proposed election the "City Manager Plan" of government is adopted, the new council may be elected at the June election of 1922, and the new City Government will go into office on the first day of September, 1922.

When the last election for change of City Government was held, the statute provided that the members of council could be elcted either from the wards or from the city at large, according to the wish of the people voting for such change, but by the Act of the General Assembly of Virgiia, approved March 20, 1920, it is expressly provided that the members of council shall be elected from the city at large. The same Act provides that the council shall elect one of its members to presiae over its meetings, who shall be ex-officio mayor, and that he shall possess the same powers and be subject to the same duties as other members of the council with a vote but no veto, and that he shall be official head of the city. With the exception of those officers required by the Constitution of the State to be elected by popular vote, the members of the council shall be only elective city officials. The same Act provides that, the adminis trative and executive powers of the city including the power of appointment of officers and employees shall be vested in a City Manager, who shall be appointed by the council at its first meting or as soon thereafter as practicable, and hold office during the pleasure of the council, or for a term of three years, unless sooner removed by council for malfeasance, misfeasance, neglect or duty or incompetency, and that the council may re-appoint such manager for a term not exceeding six years who shall at all times be subject to removal by council for the reasons above stated, and who shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the council The duties of the City Manager are to see that all laws, ordinances, resolutions and by laws of the council are faithfully executed; attend all meetings of the council and recommend for adoption such measures as he shall deem expedient, make reports to the council from itime to time upon the affairs of the city, and keep the council fully advised of the city's financial condition, and its future financial needs; prepare and submit to the council a tentative budget for the next fiscal year and such other duties as may be prescribed by council not in conflict with the foregoing, and shall be bonded as the council may deem necessary.

All such city or town officers and employees as the council shall determine necesary for the proper administration of the city, shall be appointed and may be removed by the City Manager except those in the financial, legal and judicial departments, and the clerical and other attendants of the council. The City Manager shall report to council each appointment and removal at the next meeting thereof following such appointment or removal. Except as modified by Section 2942 the council shall have and exercise the general management of the affairs of the city and town; and in addition to such powers and duties as are guaranteed and imposed by law, shall exercise and perform all the powers and duties now authorized or imposed by general law and special act, in so far as they are not inconsistent therewith; and shall have power to elect or appoint the chief or heads of departments and all such other officials and employees authorized by charter or by general law and to remove the same at pleasure, and shall have the right to abolish any office created by them. The council of any city now having a police board or board of fire commissioners or other board or commission other than the sinking fund board or commission, may by a majority vote of all the members elected to such council abolish such boards and perform all the duties now performed by them.

The petitions should be signed as above stated by those only who were qualified to vote at the last election for mayor and council, or in the year 1920, and it is required that the petition should show the ward, the street and the house number of each petitioner. It is not necessary that all the names be upon one petition. All the petitions, however, must be of the same form and contain a brief statement of the plan to be voted on

It has been sugested that the members of council under the "City Manager Plan" of Government should be elected with compensation. If this suggestion is adopted, Section 2951 of the Code of Virginia provides that the Circuit Court of the City shall appoint a commission of five resident taxpayers qualified voters of the city, who shall fix the compensation to be paid to the ex-officio mayor and councilmen, and that the compensation so fixed shall be for one term only, and that the mayor of the city immediately after formal notice of the adoption of the "City Manager Plan," shall make application to the Circuit Court of the City for the appointment of such Commissioners, and that the report of said Commissioners shall be made as soon as practicable, and which report shall be entered in full on the records of the council, and shall have the force and effect of an ordinance duly adopted in the mode prescribed by law.

SAYS SHE FEELS LIKE SHOUTING

Since Taking Tanlac Mrs. Riley Goes Around Rejoicing Every Day

"I hadn't been well a single day in two years, and life seemed hardly worth living at the time I started taking Tanlac; but now I just feel like shouting for joy I'm so happy to get my health back," declared Mrs. Mary J. Riley, 523 Sixth avenue, N. E., Roanoke, Va.

"Two years ago," she continued, "I had a severe attack of the 'flu,' and it wrecked by health so that life was just one unbroken period of misery. I suffered so much that I sometimes felt death would have been welcome. I had indigestion in its worst form and ate barely enough to keep body and soul together. I was unable to do my housework and was so weak and trembly that sometimes I couldn't hold a glass of water to my lips.

"My nerves were almost a total wreck and sleep was next to impossible. I had rheumatism all over my body, and at times it semed I couldn't bear the pains any longer. My muscles ached and my shoulders hurt so I couldn't get my hand up to my head. Life was simply a burden and I was heart-sick over my condition.

"But I am now in perfect health, and it's all because of this wonderful Tanlac. My heart is full of gratitude when I think what a blessing Tanlac has been to me, and I will never get through praising it. I have gained seventeen pounds in weight and feel so well and strang that can do my housework with the greatest ease. I am so happy I just go around rejoicing all day long."

partment, revived his plan for a publicity campaign involving the expenditure of $2,300,000 for magazine and newspaper advertising. This plan was rejected at the general meeting of International Union heads in Washington last February. No action was taken on it.

Milto Snellings, national president of the Steam and Operating Engineers' Union, of Washington, was found dead in bed at a local hotel yesterday morning. Mr. Snellings was 52 years old and had been president of the union for the last five years. He also was a member of the executive council of the federation's Building Trades Department.

Arthur M. Huddell, of Boston, Mass., vice president of the union, it was announced, will take charge of Mr. Snellings official duties.

THE UNIVERSITY OF HUMANITY

Diplomas Awarded Men and Women Who Qualify in This Unique Institution.

The four training colleges in The United States, of which two are in Chicago and two in New York City, conducted by The Salvation Army, specializes in the science of art. of understanding and handling people.

Two of these in each city are devoted to the instruction of women.

In addition to the vast fund of general experience which the workers in the Salvation Army have acquired through a forty years apprenticeship at serving men and women in every possible phase and emergency of crime, sorrow and misfortune, it adds to its marvelous efficiency in handing down these traditions by giving to every man and woman who consecrates all his or her life to this work a university course of ten months intensive study.

Besides the evangelical side of this instruction, which prepares the student to conduct all kinds of meetings they also must learn much of the training that pioneer missionaries need to maintain themselves in a variety of surroundings, establish a home, a meeting place or corps from which their activities will radiate and around which they will draw for all kinds of spiritual and temporal relief, the people of their community.

Officers who receive a commission in the Salvation Army must be skilled in saving men just as the officers of our military armies of the world are trained in destroying men. Their training for life of men saving is just as complex and diversified. Indeed the men's training colleges of the Salvation Army have been called its 'West Point.'

Fully as comprehensive is the instruction given to the young women who register for this work. They must learn domestic science, sewing, nursing, as well as the religious side, for there is no demand made upon officers in this great army that is not met by them in the intelligent capable manner of the expert.

After the ten months in the college has been completed the young officer must serve a year's probationary training under some elder officer. During that period he has regular monthly examinations which he must pass according to a required standard before he is ordained for service and commissioned and sent forth to establish his own field.

A day's program in a Salvation Army College is fully as rigorous and exacting as that of any military institution.

This painting, which hangs in National Headquarters of the American Red Cross, Washington, depicts the homage of America's fighting men to American womanhood as mobilized for service in the World War by the organization. It is the collaborative scientific and art creation of Major Joseph Gray Kitchell, late of the General Staff, U. S. A., and F. Luis Mora of the New York School of Art. The face of the central figure is a composite of the features of a thousand Red Cross workers selected for the purpose.

And they cost so little when you make them yourself. They are, moreover, individual, and you can give them a distinctive touch of your own, which is usually so effective.
There are very many among the new Pictorial patterns that are especially adapted to the new ginghams, linens, etc., also for the Shantung Frocks, Sport Silks, etc.
In fact, you will find a style adapted to almost any material popular at present, and the patterns are so easily followed if carefully read and instructions obeyed that you will not hesitate to make up the finer fabrics as well as the less expensive ones for yourself.

Staunton, Va.—Roadbuilding has halted hatchings in the Mint Spring neighborhood. The ordinary man can see very little connection between the construction of macadam roads and the raising of chickens, but according to Superintendent of Roads R. vicinity of the roadbuilders' camp along the route of the Lee Highway, about six moles from Staunton, is practically at a standstill. Continual blasting shakes the eggs in such a way that they fail to hatch.

Paris is so Expensive Yanks Rush Back to U. S. A.

Paris, June 10.—As a result of the enormously increased prices for living accommodations and amusements and the new "visitors' tax" of 10 francs daily Americans are rushing recently for the summer season are besieging the steamship companies for reservations homeward.

Many of them will not even wait for the Grand Prix on June 26, which is the culminating event of the Paris grand season.

Instances of abuse are simply pouring into the American embassy here, where disappointed tourists are standing in line for passport vises to enable them to leave France.
